

LIVE LIKE A CELEBRITY; GO CLUBBING IN ZURICH WITH THE EDEN AU LAC

First appearances can be deceptive; the Eden au Lac, stands stoic on the bank of Lake Zurich, a short stroll from the Royal Opera House but, it has a guilty secret; it has one of the most popular clubbing programmes in a city that is known for its vibrant night life.

Become a celebrity for the weekend with the Premium Clubbing programme, it starts when the chauffeur-driven Daimler is waiting at the airport or railway station in Switzerland, with a chilled bottle of Champagne and continues with VIP entrance to Indochine on Friday evening and a delicious 5-course degustation menu on Saturday evening prior to admission to Saint Germain, one of Europe's most prestigious clubs. The hotel's Daimler Super Eight will be on standby to ensure that paparazzi sense of stylish arrival. Once back at the Eden au Lac, there will be a "roll-in" buffet waiting in the room, including champagne, tea and coffee. Check-out has been thoughtfully delayed until 4.00 p.m. on Sunday afternoon.

The Eden au Lac enjoys stunning views of Lake Zurich and is just a short stroll away from the centre of Zurich. The bar has popular jazz evenings and being so close to the Opera House, it is the first choice for many guests attending the international array of performances held there. Its restaurant has attracted much attention and has received awards for the fine cuisine; in short, this luxurious hotel can open doors to any aspect of Zurich, a city that offers visitors an astounding cultural diversity and with the Swiss Franc and sterling remaining constant, it has never been easier and more affordable to explore the city named as that with the highest standard of living for the seventh year in succession by HR consultants William M. Mercers.
