All change at the helm of the flagship.

After five years in charge Hans-Rudolf and Elisabeth Rütli have chosen to hand over the management of the Victoria-Jungfrau Grand Hotel & Spa in Interlaken at the end of the year. A successor is to be appointed over the coming months.

Interlaken, 28 April 2011 (IB) – After five years in charge of the Victoria-Jungfrau Grand Hotel & Spa in Interlaken, the flagship of the Victoria-Jungfrau Collection, Hans-Rudolf Rütli and his wife Elisabeth are to leave the five-star establishment at the end of the year at their own request to take up new professional challenges. “We wish Hans-Rudolf and Elisabeth Rütli every success for the next stage in their careers and thank them for their commitment and dedication,” says Beat R. Sigg, member of the Management Board of the Victoria-Jungfrau Collection on behalf of all the members of the Board and the hotel management. “The search for a successor is now already underway and once a decision has been made, a detailed handover will be planned. We are delighted that the Rütli have chosen to stay on as dedicated hoteliers in Interlaken until the end of 2011.”

Hans-Rudolf and Elisabeth Rütli took over the management of the Victoria-Jungfrau Grand Hotel & Spa in Interlaken on 1 January 2007. Previously they had been in charge of illustrious five-star hotels both abroad and in Switzerland, including the Tschuggen Grand Hotel in Arosa, the Dolder Grand Hotel in Zurich, the InterContinental Hotel in Bucharest and the Radisson SAS Hotel in Brussels. The hoteliers are now looking to take up a new professional challenge - either within or beyond Switzerland's borders.
